The Renocahi

REIDSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Reidsville, N. C.

1951

Dear Students,

Suddenly we realize that graduation is almost here. It seems as though this school year began only yesterday, for months have passed so rapidly.

We, the Renocahi staff, wish to share with all students the memories of this school year, so we have collected many pictures of our classes, activities, features, and sports. We are enclosing them in this letter which we shall call the Renocahi 1951.

We are proud of the pictures of our school life, and we believe you will like them too -----

Dedication

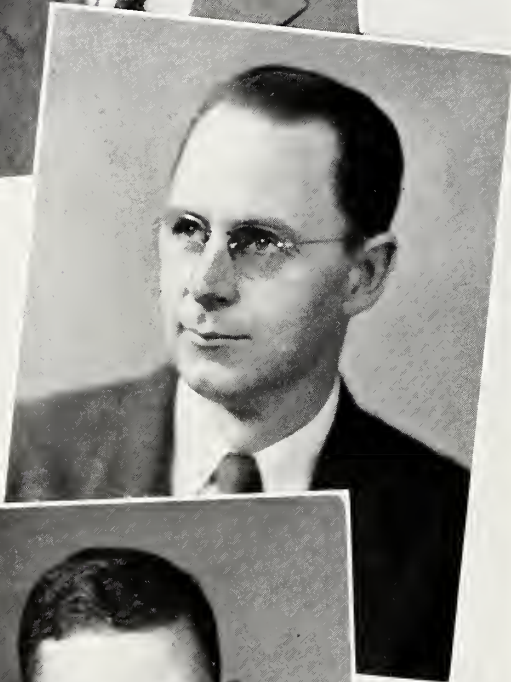

In September, 1949, Miss MARY SUSAN ROBERTSON became a member of the Reidsville High School faculty and adviser to the Senior Dramatics Department. The students soon knew her as a personal friend and companion as well as a teacher. To Miss Robertson, who has been an inspiration to all her students, we, the Senior Class, proudly dedicate the 1951 RENOCANH.

This year many things were accomplished by our clubs and organizations. Each month the Student Organization presented a banner to the home room having the highest attendance. A citizenship award was started. Twerp Season and Field Day were great successes.

The pep rallies before the Mt. Airy and the Henderson games were both thrillers - a funeral at one, and a skit of girls (really boys) at the other. And the day the band received their uniforms, they looked so handsome in the blue and gold. The Glee Club Concerts proved that Reidsville High had a wonderful Choral group. "Brother Goose", presented by the Senior Dramatics, was a sensation from the start. With the Latin Club Banquet and the Junior Dramatics Club Talent Show, the year was filled to the brim.

We are sorry we can't enclose pictures of all club members, but we have some dandy ones of the officers. Just look at them -----

As for sports, well you've no doubt heard quite a bit about our school's outstanding achievements. But let us remind you that our football team won the Class AA Championship by defeating Henderson High 26-0. Charles Royster and Alvin Cooke made the All-State Team.

Our Basketball Boys had a surprisingly good season, and the Girls' Squad lived up to the standards set by previous teams. And - oh well, just take a look at the enclosed pictures. They tell more than words ever could. -----

Captains and Coaches

First row: Jimmy Faircloth, Captain of Boys' Basketball; David Jones, Baseball Captain; Isabel Blackburn, Captain of Girls' Basketball; Hunter Sheridan and Charles Royster, Football Captains.

Second row: Mr. Hoy Isaacs, Boys' Basketball Coach; Mr. J. L. Holmes, Girls' Basketball Coach; Mr. J. W. Knight and Mr. George Wingfield, Football Coaches.

We hope you'll never forget the beauty pageant of 1951. Isn't this an attractive picture of "Miss Leidsville High"?

Also please notice the superlatives who were chosen by the seniors. We have pictured them in couples.

We are proud to enclose a picture of our honor students. They are the five seniors who had the highest averages at mid-term.

Our leaders chose their favorites and Mr. Throckmorton really made some beautiful pictures of them.

We are enclosing important information about the class of '51. Don't miss reading every word of them!

And aren't the mascots cute? ----

A PAUSE

The past is made of memories
Of days once lived, now dead.
Tomorrow is made of dreams and hopes
With wider paths to tread.
We've reached the door that stands between
The future and the past.
And yet we pause within its arch
For one look back—the last.
We whisper then a silent prayer
Of thanks to Him who led;
And then, with heads held high with hope,
We turn and walk ahead.

—"PAT" LUFTY

Statistics

DEAR STUDENTS:

We Seniors would like for you, our fellow students, to know just a little more about us. In order to let you know all the facts about our wonderful class, we have taken a census, and this is what we found:

We, the Seniors of 1951, are a very large group when we are added into one big body. Our weight is 12,788 pounds. We wear a very large shoe, which is a size 876; and we stand at a height of 662 feet and 5 inches. Our hair is 53% brown, 30% blond, 13% black, and 4% red, not to mention the peroxide that is in part of the hair. Our eyes are 43% blue, 35% brown, 16% hazel, and 6% grey.

If anyone ever wants to find us, he may find us at home listening to the radio or reading our favorite magazines, "Life" and "Seventeen." We are very fond of eating. While we are at home, we listen to our favorite songs, "Mona Lisa," "Safronia B.," and "Moving On." Doris Day, Perry Como, and Bing Crosby are our favorite singers. Whenever we pick up the morning paper, we look for the funnies and the sports page. Our favorite pet around the house is man's best friend, the dog.

Our favorite pastime is dating and dancing. Our favorite "peeve" is waiting for someone. When dating we may go to see a movie if June Allyson or Randolph Scott is playing in a picture that we think we will like. After the movie, we ride out to "Short Sugar's" in a Mercury or Ford to chat with other classmates.

We attend all of the football games because that is our favorite sport. At half-time, we sit and talk to our many friends, or we walk by the concession stand to buy a Coke, Hershey Bar, or Mound.

We hope that you will like Miss Conley, Mr. Holmes, and Miss Wootton, our Senior Class teachers, and all the rest of the faculty as well as we did.

JANE BARKER AND KEITH HANDY
Mascots

We are human, just like the rest of you, so we think that our Mothers and Fathers are the ideal men and women of today.

On Sunday morning all of us get up early and go to church. We are 43% Baptist, 30% Methodist, 11% Christian, 9% Presbyterian, and 7% other denominations.

You have now been properly introduced to the Senior Class of 1951. We are justified, we think, in being just a little proud of ourselves. We leave our record with you, hoping it will serve as an inspiration to you in the future.

Sincerely,
THE SENIORS OF 1951

Class Prophecy

Here it is 1961 and we are gathered in Reidsville, North Carolina, for our class reunion. Mary Lou Clark has invited us to celebrate in her fabulous suburban home. Assisting her are Tommy Sue Palmer and Mary Wallace Apple who have positions as receptionists at NBC in New York.

Coming out on the terrace we see Mr. Paul King, owner of a local drive-in theater, talking to his secretary, Clara Gunn, about the picture soon to be shown, starring Billie Maus, Isabel Blackburn, Jimmy McDonald, and Swain Hamlet. This great hit is entitled, "Diamond Muleshoe."

What is that strange noise we hear? Oh, of course, it's Max Hewitt and his Natural Five plunking some soft music over in the corner. The band is made up of Billy Walker, baritone; William Gentry, bass; Frankie Smith, alto; Claude Barbee, guitar; Miles Stadler, fiddle.

Here comes a cloud of dust down the road preceded by a car driven by the famous stock car driver, Everette Smith. Following close behind is an ambulance designed and constructed by the Roberts-Newnam Automobile Company, owned and operated by Donnie and Bobby respectively, and driven by John Citty, the last person ever to "let you down."

Emerging from a black limousine is torch singer, Marian Small, and with her we see Betty Moore who is a famous dress designer in Paris. Coming with Betty are Ann Way and Ann Whitehead, her secretaries.

Making their way onto the dance floor are Pat Luftv, world famous pianist, and James Gunn, head football coach at Notre Dame. They seem to be interested in the couple over in the corner who could be none other than lawyers Dorothy Henderson and Eugene Bray. They seem to be discussing the trial of last week when Dorothy defended the female point of view in a divorce case. Eugene, of course, was the prosecutor. Judge Peter McMichael presided over the case.

Over by the punch bowl we see Bill Bray and the leading models from his agency. They are Jacqueline McKinney, Nancy Arthur, Marie Vaughn, and Eleanor Roberts. Talking to the models are hair stylists, Betty Robertson, Frances Matkins, and Ila Sue Brown.

Mayor Douglas Dodson has just entered and with him are Chief of Police, Jack Stadler; City Manager, David Jones; and Constable, Jimmy Faircloth. These fellows have surely made a name for themselves, along with Helen Haynes who is North Carolina's second woman judge. Helen has tried many cases and found them all guilty.

Here come the housewives led by Joyce Mashev. Following close behind are Gave Shumate, Mary Ann Smith, and Sara Griffin. Trying to find out how they did it are our new teachers at Reidsville High, Barbara Hooper, Mary Jane Martin, and Barbara Carter.

A hush comes over the crowd and Mayor Dodson begins to speak. He is commending farmers. Harold Matkins, Curtis Chilton, Wallace McKinney, Charles Roberts, and Lindsey Robertson on their bumper crops. Lindsey contributes his successful year of farming to Kenneth Carlisle's new invention, the potato shade which has kept the sun out of the eyes of the potatoes these hot summer days. Grocers Philip Carroll, Jack Freeman, and Sammy Simmons are happy about the successful year of farming, also.

The food for this gala occasion was prepared by home demonstration agents, Lorene Jones, Alice Gates and Geneva Harrison. Home Economics teachers, Nancy McCollum, Roxie Hash, Lou Ola Billingsley, and Polly Smith, assisted with the refreshments.

I see Sarah Ann Clark over by the door taking pictures of the guests. She is satisfactorily established in her own photographer's studio now. With her is writer, Nancy Young, author of the new novel, "Come Back With the Wind." Sneaking up behind these young ladies is Peggy McDaniel. She is working as a special agent for the F.B.I. these day and must be on a special case today.

Here comes the muscle men. Jimmy Hardy and Charles Royster are talking over the contracts they have just signed with the Philadelphia Eagles. Marvin Bondurant and Donnie Garrison have been entertaining a group of interested young ladies with their talk about the Olympics in which they participated. Standing near the hostess is that immortal guy of baseball fame, Alvin Cooke. They tell me that he has a bid for baseball's hall of fame in Cooperstown. We mustn't forget our girl athletes. Talking things over are Ruth Shumate, softball star, and Carolyn Chapmon, who at the present is touring the country with the Girls All-Star Basketball Team.

Bobby Jean Alcorn and Gilly Andrews have simply made millions in their exclusive dress shoppe in New York. Renewing old acquaintances with these lovely ladies are Peggy Bunton and Sarah Childrey, who can be seen nightly on television, co-starring with E. B. Moore.

Look who just entered. Richard Ratcliffe. He has just returned from darkest Africa, where he went in search of a new serum which Doctors Dick Morris and Hunter Sheridan have been trying to perfect.

Now about what are Jean McCollum and Betty Grey Smith arguing? They both want to dance with Thruston Pearson, the famous tobacco tycoon.

Making their way onto the floor are the chorus girls composed of Frances Ross, Anne Stokes, Elizabeth Southard, Irene Parks, and Virginia Moore. Claude Shumate gets a whack on the back by some unseen hand as he seems to be enjoying the feature too much. Now John Warner and Milton Ware, dealers in men's clothing, give you a little advice. "We Warner you not to Ware our clothes until they are paid for."

Betty Cox, Peggy Wright, and Ruth Hough have just returned from South America where they have been teaching Bible in the schools. Along with these ladies are Barbara Tate, Frances Washburn, Peggy Tate, and Gladys Williams, who are registered nurses.

Elizabeth Vernon and Willie Mae Eastwood are secretaries for Melvin Hall who owns half of the Empire State Building at the present. They came from New York on a TWA plane piloted by John Southard and were nicely cared for by Margaret Patterson and Maudine Paschal, head hostesses for this airline.

James Shreve and Billy Massey, successful business men, are talking to our candidates for governor, John Holderby and James Walker, about the state of the nation.

Over in the corner we see Adrian Walker, Billy Sigmon, and Ronnie Walker, three men of distinction, being tantalized by Penelope Cannon, Dean of Women at Cannon College. Trying to get in on the conversation are Ken Howard, owner and operator of "Howard's Grill," Jimmy Marks and Bedford McAlister, attorneys-at-law. Their slogan is "You see 'em, we'll sue 'em."

Frances Handy has just extended an invitation to all those who are travelling west to stop in at her "Last Chance Cafe" in El Paso.

We leave this merry group of people and slip unseen out the back door into the future and whatever it may hold for us.

FRANCES HANDY, Prophetess

Class Will

State of North Carolina
County of Rockingham
City of Reidsville

Realizing that we, the Class of 1951, must now make our departure from Reidsville High School, we wish to leave the following vices and virtues. Being of sane minds and healthy bodies, we do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To the world, now stricken with pain and sorrow, we leave the hope for everlasting peace and freedom for all mankind.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Lipscomb we leave our sincere appreciation for the many things he has done for us.

ARTICLE III

To Mr. E. C. Anderson, our principal, we leave our many thanks for his patience, understanding and helpfulness.

ARTICLE IV

To Miss Kate Conley is left our gratitude for making this 1951 RENOCAMI a success.

ARTICLE V

To Miss Wootton we leave our deepest appreciation for her guidance throughout our senior year.

ARTICLE VI

To Mr. Holmes we leave our gratitude for all his efforts in our behalf.

ARTICLE VII

We bestow upon the faculty our most sincere thanks for their patience and guidance.

ARTICLE VIII

To the Junior Class, along with the many responsibilities, we leave the joy of being a senior.

ARTICLE IX

To the students of Reidsville High School we leave the following:

Section 1. Mary Wallace Apple wills her love for Carolina to Marlene Saunders.

Section 2. To anyone with the same interest, Sara Ann Griffin leaves her love for brown.

Section 3. The small stature of Sammy Simmons is bestowed upon Donald Ross.

Section 4. With Giles Hall, Dick Morris leaves his artistic ability.

Section 5. The quiet dispositions of Polly Smith and Elizabeth Vernon are willed to Mary Louise Dixon and Jean Alverson.

Section 6. Wayne McKinney, Curtis Chilton, and Miles Stadler wish to leave their English Handbook to anyone who will relieve them of it.

Section 7. Knowing that they will need it, Jack Freeman, Claude Shumate, and Everette Smith bequeath the short five minutes between classes to that guy with a gal.

Section 8. Joyce Massey's love of cheerleading she confers upon Eleanor Smith.

Section 9. Ila Sue Brown's and Peggy Tate's ability to laugh at any time is conferred upon Betsy Gibson and Shirley Thornton.

Section 10. The becoming "crew cuts" of Marvin Bondurant and Charles Royster are left to "Feet" Hooper.

Section 11. Their love for dancing, Dorothy Henderson, Mary Lou Clarke, and Claude Barbee bestow upon Jerry McBrayer, Jane Palmer, and Martha Jo Hopkins.

Section 12. To Becky Sheets, Isabel Blackburn's love for singing is conferred.

Section 13. Douglas Dodson wishes to leave to some lucky politician his position as president.

Section 14. Marie Vaughn and Sarah Childrey bequeath their golden locks to Peggy Hall and Joan Harrelson.

Section 15. The worn French Books of Frances Handy, Paul King, and Bobbie Jean Alcorn are willed to Glenn Clark and Bobbie Jean Eatmon.

Section 16. Pat Luffy's job as pianist of R. H. S. is bestowed upon Barbara Stalvey.

Section 17. His ability to carry home a load of books, Jimmy McDonald confers to Hugh Scott Hester.

Section 18. Barbara Tate and James Shreve bequeath their high altitude to Florence Mitchell and Fred Simmons.

Section 19. Thruston Pearson's position on the football bench is left to some unlucky guy.

Section 20. To Lady Barbara Wilkerson and Mary Jim Hendrix, Sara Clark, Ann Stokes and Mary Jane Martin bequeath their ability to keep quiet.

Section 21. Peggy Bunton and Tommy Sue Palmer leave their love for R. H. S. to Dona Lou Moorefield.

Section 22. The becoming red curls of Gilly Andrews and Donnie Garrison are bestowed upon Pat Brady and Sarah Smothers.

Section 23. Upon anyone who doesn't see well, Pete McMichael confers his headgear.

Section 24. Lib Suthard and Barbara Hooper will their love for Greensboro to Hazel Moore and Patricia Hooper.

Section 25. To a good politician Eugene Bray leaves the offices he didn't get.

Section 26. Billy Massey, Harold Matkins, and Lindsey Robertson bequeath the remaining parts of their buses to Willard Robertson and Pete Peters.

Section 27. Upon Ruth Willis, Nancy Young's love for South Carolina is bestowed.

Section 28. Jack Stadler's big laugh is left with Vernon McKinney.

Section 29. Clara Gunn, Ruth Shumate, Virginia Moore, and Roxie Hash bequeath to Dot Dabbs, Katherine Collins, Maudine Paschal, and Rebecca Strader their love for baseball.

Section 30. To David Walker, John Holderby's love for Fillman Drive is conferred.

Section 31. Her wobbly desk in Miss Wootton's room, Lou Ola Billingsley leaves to Billy Grey Vawter.

Section 32. The athletic ability of Alvin Cooke and Jimmy Hardy is bestowed upon Johnny Turpin and Bobby Wilkerson.

Section 33. Barbara Carter wishes to leave her sincere thanks to the teachers for helping her through the years.

Section 34. The quiet, simple ways of Nancy McCollum and Carolyn Chapmon are left to Barbara Trent and Everleen Haney.

Section 35. Penny Cannon's and Bobby Ratchiff's love for having a big time is bestowed upon everyone with the same desire.

Section 36. With anyone who has the time, Charles Roberts and Frankie Smith wish to leave their desire to loaf.

Section 37. Mary Anne Smith bequeaths her interest in radio engineering to anyone with the same interest.

Section 38. The bald spot on Ronald Walker's head, he will take with him.

Section 39. To the ones who get there first, Frances Washburn and Betty Robertson will their seats on the school bus.

Section 40. Upon Betty Grey Moricle, Ruth Hough and Ken Howard bestow their love for music.

Section 41. Alice Gates and Frances Ross bequeath their love for blond hair and blue eyes to Lois Gates and Ann Carolyn McKinney.

Section 42. With Lowell Roberts and Judy Zimmerman is left Bobby Newnam's and Jacqueline McKinney's way with the opposite sex.

Section 43. Billy Sigmon bequeaths to Harry Knight his ability to make witty remarks in class.

Section 45. Gave Shumate takes her diamond with her.

Section 46. Upon anyone who needs them, Peggy McDaniel leaves the last few minutes of lunch hour.

Section 47. Donnie Roberts wills his parking space to anyone who has the need of it.

Section 48. Her love for Duke University, Billie Maus bestows upon Peggy Hall.

Section 49. To some poor soul, Jimmy Marks leaves his Latin book.

Section 50. Melvin Hall confers his old bus license to Dot Lee Waynick.

Section 51. Upon "Goat" Harrison and Hugh City is bestowed John City's and Jimmy Faircloth's and David Jones' undying love for basketball.

Section 52. Marian Small bequeaths her many tardy excuses to anyone who likes to sleep as well as she does.

Section 53. The quiet dispositions of James Walker and Philip Carroll are willed to some deserving characters.

Section 54. John Warner's spot on the diamond is left to Johnny Clark.

Section 55. Upon Gayle Gilliam, Irene Parks bestows her love for naturally curly hair.

Section 56. Kenneth Carlisle leaves his love for the farmer's daughter to Bill Frye.

Section 57. To Frances Eastwood, Willie May Eastwood wills her love for bus drivers.

Section 58. Upon Betsy Gibson, Gladys Williams bestows her love for tall boys.

Section 59. Lorene Jones wills to Inez Troxler her seat in the window on second floor.

Section 60. Bedford McAllister and Milton Ware bequeath their interest in blondes to those people with the same interest.

Section 61. Adrian Walker wills his fraternity pin to Doc Groan, hoping that he will keep the slogan.

Section 62. To anyone who can't find a better reason to laugh, Nancye Arthur and Ann Way leave their corny jokes.

Section 63. The pleasing personality of Betty Moore, Eleanor Roberts, and Frances Matkins is left to Frances Burroughs and Peggy Talley.

Section 64. Geneva Harrison wills her ability to watch the clock to anyone interested in the time.

Section 65. Betty Smith and Betty Cox leave their parts in B. T. U. to Buddy Cox.

Section 66. Max Hewitt leaves his love for the radio to Donnie McDonald.

Section 67. Jean Carolyn McCollum leaves her brown curly locks to Shirley Cox, provided she takes good care of them.

Section 68. Ann Whitehead bestows upon some unlucky person, her seat in Mr. Knight's room.

Section 69. To anyone who can stand the noise, Swain Hamlet leaves his place in the band.

Section 70. Peggy Wright, Margaret Patterson, E. B. Moore, and Bill Bray leave their seats in Glee Club to persons who can "make with the music."

Section 71. James Gunn's ability to kick that pigskin is bestowed upon Bobby Wilkerson.

Section 72. Upon Wayne Handy, John Southard and William Gentry bestow their variety of jokes.

Section 73. Billy Walker leaves his car to anyone who can afford the upkeep of it.

Section 74. Helen Haynes' job as basketball manager is left to some hard working person.

Witnessed by Jimmy Hardy, Class President
Douglas Dodson, President of Student Organization
Miss Jane Wootton, Adviser.

WHAT MAKES A CHAMPION ATHLETE?

IS IT CONDITIONING. . . coaching . . . teamwork . . . physique . . . sportsmanship . . . competitive spirit . . . or just plain honest-to-goodness athletic skill?

We don't pretend to be athletic experts, because our job is to manufacture high quality textile products. But as sporting fans we think it would be safe to say that an athletic champion is the result of all these fine qualities.

We know that it has taken a combination of great leadership, manufacturing know-how, careful planning, employee loyalty, and skilled teamwork to make Burlington Mills a champion in the textile industry. The Company's many accomplishments and progressive growth during the past 27 years are well known. We are proud of this record and equally proud of our 32,000 employees who have worked together with real team spirit as members of the Burlington team.

It's a fact that Burlington's fine fabrics, hosiery and other textile products are truly "Woven Into the Life of America" — just as every Burlington plant is woven into the life of its own community.

Thus ends our album of memories of the busy and happy days of 1951 in Reidville High School.

We are a tired but happy group.
We hope that you will place this volume among your cherished souvenirs and will in future years find it a pleasant reminder of your school days.
